Here for the weekend: lxhxb

25.9.2021 - 26.9.2021

PRESS RELEASE

Recognising that exhibitions are what brings artists into focus, we want to facilitate worthwhile ideas that might not immediately warrant the time, effort and resources of a full-length exhibition.

To this end we create a series of exhibitions with artists that are only 'here for the weekend'.

That is how I characterised the 'Here for the Weekend' exhibitions. The sentiment expressed in those sentences is likewise true for lxhxb as a whole. All the exhibitions during the last 18-odd months have been concise and at times the effort and resources spent on them were in seeming disproportion to their outcomes. I am however aware that artworks, like exhibitions, have a longer breath than just the small number of days it was possible to walk through a doorway and see it.

This short exhibition is created primarily with items from my own collection and marks the end of the little under two years lxhxb held office at the Geldropseweg in Eindhoven. Ever present health concerns have presently made it impossible to continue as before.

With works by:

Katja Mater

Guus van der Velden

Marijke van Warmerdam
